	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
This.	material contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Laws. Jitle
	C-O-N-F-I-D-E-N-T-I-A-L	5X
COUNTRY	Poland REPORT
SUBJECT	Security Measures/Port Facilities/ DATE DISTR. 28 Sept 1959	÷ ÿ
	Mayol Vessels and Installations and Commercial Shipping/Black Market NO. PAGES
1	Activity
y	REFERENCES 25X	(1
DATE OF INFO.	NAVY Review Completed 25	5X
PLACE &	35	5X
	THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION	4 -:
	The Office of Naval Intelligence furnished the following information to CIA for USIB dissemination / 25	5X
	1 L	ماريخ
	Security Measures and Port Facilities	IC
1.		5
DATE OF INFO. PLACE & DATE ACQ	stationed at dockside to inspect material leaving the ship.	- TA
		_
		٠.
		I s
		5
	The gentries straddled at	5 2
	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad	5 2
	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes,	15 2/
	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	15 2/15
	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	L
	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—// faced quay was about three feet above water leven and the nearest railroad track lay eight to 10 feet from the edge of the quay. At the port office a control tower lar to those used at airfields, directs harbor traffic. On top of this con-	L Hs
	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—
	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete— tracked quay was about three feet above water levent and the nearest railroad track lay eight to 10 feet from the edge of the quay. At the port office a control tower similar to those used at airfields, directs harbor traffic. On top of this control tower is mounted a parabolic radar antenna six to eight feet long and two feet wide.	L
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete/
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete— Lyfaced quay was about three feet above water le25x1/2 and the nearest railroad track lay eight to 10 feet from the edge of the quay. At the port office a control tower lar to those used at airfields, directs harbor traffic. On top of this control tower is mounted a parabolic radar antenna six to eight feet long and two feet wide. Naval Vessels and Installations and Commercial Traffic Small patrol bosts were berthed in the boat basin Barracks nearby for training men manning them	2
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete-faced quay was about three feet above water levely and the nearest railroad track lay eight to 10 feet from the edge of the quay. At the port office a control tower similar to those used at airfields, directs harbor traffic. On top of this control tower is mounted a parabolic radar antenna six to eight feet long and two feet wide. Naval Vessels and Installations and Commercial Traffic Small patrol bosts were berthed in the bost basin Barracks nearby for training men manning them One or two patrol craft were steeming outside the harbor. In port
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2 2 2
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2 2 2
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2 2 2
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2 2 2
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2 2 25
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2 2 2
2.	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concrete—	2 2 25
2.	least five railread tracks, and the grain was discharged into railread cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railread cars. The concrete— the faced quay and the nearest railread track lay eight to 10 feet from the edge of the quay. At the port office a control tower large, and the port office a control tower large, and the port office a control tower is mounted a parabolic radar antenna six to eight feet long and two feet wide. Naval Vessels and Installations and Commercial Traffic. Small patrol bosts were berthed in the boat basin harracks nearby for training men manning them the or two patrol craft were steaming outside the harbor. In port were a freighter loading malasses, three small ships carrying mine sharing for Poland, and five or six unidentified Dutch vessels loading wood.	2 2 25
2. STATE	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concretes the state of the gray was about three feet above water legs 1 and the nearest railroad track lay eight to 10 feet from the edge of the quay. At the port office a control tower lar to those used at airfields, directs harbor traffic. On top of this control tower is munted a parabolic radar antenna six to eight feet long and two feet wide. Naval Vessels and Installations and Compercial Traffic Small patrol bosts were berthed in the bost basis. Barracks nearby for training men manning them. One or two patrol craft were steeming outside the harbor. In port waste a freighter loading molasses, three small ships carrying mine shoring for Peland, sod five or six unidentified Dutch vessels loading wood. ARMY NAVY FEE AEC AEC	2 25
STATE	least five railroad tracks, and the grain was discharged into railroad cars on these tracks. A steel hopper, which could be transported by cranes, fed the grain into holes on the sides of the railroad cars. The concretes the state of the gray was about three feet above water legs 1 and the nearest railroad track lay eight to 10 feet from the edge of the quay. At the port office a control tower lar to those used at airfields, directs harbor traffic. On top of this control tower is munted a parabolic radar antenna six to eight feet long and two feet wide. Naval Vessels and Installations and Compercial Traffic Small patrol bosts were berthed in the bost basis. Barracks nearby for training men manning them. One or two patrol craft were steeming outside the harbor. In port waste a freighter loading molasses, three small ships carrying mine shoring for Peland, sod five or six unidentified Dutch vessels loading wood. ARMY NAVY FEE AEC AEC	2 2 2 2 2 2 X

Approved For Release 2009/07/31 : CIA-RDP80T00246A007600550001-7

25X1

